MAS 28 Elegance – Stylish Italian Boat with an Interesting History

Stylish and distinctive MAS 28 Elegance, model year 2004. Built in Italy and originally exported to the USA, where she was used for promotional purposes by the local dealer. The boat has been featured in several boating magazines and was also used in the TV series CSI: Miami. Her history and documentation are available.

The boat is powered by a MerCruiser 320 hp engine with only 310 operating hours. The spacious cockpit features teak flooring, adjustable helm and co-helm seats, a large aft sofa and an extendable sunbathing area. The electrically operated swim platform, swim ladder and transom shower add to the comfort and practicality.

The interior features oak furnishings, Alcantara upholstery and cushions, a refrigerator, sink, chemical toilet and stereo/CD player. Navigation is supported by a Garmin chartplotter. Additional equipment includes shore power, two batteries, electric bilge pump and protective covers. The seat upholstery was renewed in 2024/2025, following the original design.

A 3,500 kg trailer is available separately. The boat is currently stored on the trailer.
